

ANNUAL MEETING - AWARDS CELEBRATION

The Indiana Association for Home and Hospice Care, Inc. (IAHHC) will be holding its annual meeting awards at a celebration breakfast on May 12, 2010 in conjunction with our Annual Conference. The recipients of the Norah J. McFarland Award, the Home Care & Hospice Advocate of the Year Award, and the Cheryl Atwood Award will be recognized. Please forward nominations to IAHHC by April 15, 2010.

NORAH J. MCFARLAND AWARD

Nominations for this award are for individuals who exhibit:

- Leadership
- Integrity
- Years of community service
- Record of community involvement
- Sensitivity to home health issues and client needs
- Action on behalf of home health, hospice, or home support services
- Current resident of the state of Indiana
- Five years or more experience with the IAHHC member agency
- Interaction with other service providers and policy makers

2009 Recipient: Dorian Maples

HOME CARE & HOSPICE ADVOCATE OF THE YEAR

Nominations for this award are for Public Servants or other individuals who exhibit:

- Integrity & Leadership
- Years of community/public service
- Record of community involvement
- Support for home health, hospice, and home support services in the public arena
- Statesmanship

CHERYL ATWOOD CAREGIVER AWARD

IAHHC members truly believe that home health, hospice, and home supportive services are only possible because of the caregivers and support staff that daily provides skilled, professional, caring services to the disabled, acutely and terminally ill, and elderly residents of Indiana. This award will be presented to a volunteer or paid caregiver, paraprofessional or professional who best represents the following criteria:

- Makes a significant positive impact on patients or staff or community
- Is not in a management position
- Has at least one year's service with your agency
- Provides leadership within your agency

Please note that all staff members are eligible for nomination. It is important that your agency, explicitly delineate the reasons it believes that your staff member meets the criteria for nomination.

2008 Recipient: Rena Marshall

Any IAHHC member may submit a nomination for the above three awards. You may mail, fax, or email your information. Please submit name and any supporting documentation by April 15, 2010:

Nominations
IAHHC
6320-G Rucker Road
Indianapolis, IN 46220
todd@iahhc.org or (FAX: 317-575-8751)