

Hospice 201

August 6-7, 2019

9:00 am - 4:00 pm Eastern

IAHHC Conference Room

Sponsored by Hall Render Killian Heath & Lyman
6320-G Rucker Road, Indianapolis, IN

Continue to build your knowledge for the provision of Hospice Services. Learn the resources available and how to access important information for your agency. Learn the Medicare Regulations and current OIG targets for the Hospice Programs. Discuss issues and/or questions related to the Hospice Medicare Benefit, along with the Indiana Medicaid Coverage criteria and State Licensure Administrative and Hospice Code Laws. Discussion focused on accurate assessment of patient status and hospice level of care. Learn about working collaboratively with other entities to ensure a cohesive plan of care for the patient. Learn about the Hospice IDG, what it is, and what it should be. Learn how to apply the information from your Pepper reports to develop and enhance your Hospice QAPI program.

In addition to the discussion points noted above we will touch on the following subject areas:

- Advanced Directives and Indiana Laws related
- The Hospice Care plan
- Promoting success with your Interdisciplinary team
- The Hospice Medical Director
- Hospice Election
- Hospice Revocation
- Hospice Certification/Recertification/F2F

Resource materials that will remain a valuable resource at the Agency level will be made available to attendees. Attendees for this conference should have a working knowledge of Hospice, levels of care, and reimbursement structure.

This educational offering will be presented by:

Cindi Wessel, RN, BSN Home Health and Hospice Resource Director for IAHHC.
