

Visiting Nurse Association of the Wabash Valley is a community based not-for-profit home health and hospice provider located in Terre Haute, IN is seeking a highly experienced and visionary Chief Executive Officer to lead our organization. The CEO will be responsible for providing strategic direction, managing business operations, and driving growth. The ideal candidate will have a proven track record in senior leadership, strategic planning, and business management. Minimum of 5 years of progressive experience in health care management, preferably in home health or hospice setting. Knowledge of industry and markets in the community as well as non-profit leadership helpful.

Other qualifications include bachelor's degree in related field, advanced degree preferred. Outstanding interpersonal skills with ability to communicate effectively, sensitively, and compassionately as well as gain trust, credibility, loyalty, and respect of all stakeholders. Ability to be a visible, highly engaged leader with the ability to inspire, challenge, and motivate staff to achieve common goals and organizational growth.

Qualified applicants can apply or submit resume at:

<https://www.paycomonline.net/v4/ats/web.php/jobs/ViewJobDetails?job=72841&clientkey=24EC8AC5A4529A69503F049739FCF675>