WHAT WE NEED

RNs ready to care for the whole person

WHO WE ARE LOOKING FOR

A Home Health Registered Nurse develops and oversees nursing care plans that individually address each patient's needs. Our RNs go beyond that and care for the patient's mind, body and spirit while supporting their families and caregivers as well. Home healthcare requires a special balance – you are the bridge between the physician and the home.

Can you develop, implement and supervise outstanding nursing care plans? Can you assess patient needs and make adjustments as needed? Are you goal-oriented and a strong communicator? Let us show you a way to put all these skills to work.

WHAT YOU WILL DO

- Complete a thorough nursing assessment on admission and with each skilled nurse visit.
- Provide services or treatments requiring substantial and specialized nursing skill according with the written patient care plan and the signed plan of treatment.
- Supervise and guides care provided by LPN and Home Health Aide.
- Demonstrate knowledge of home health regulatory standards and policies of agency.
- Establish a plan of care that is realistic and has measureable goals.

WHAT IT TAKES TO SUCCEED

- Identify personal learning needs. Seek opportunity for continued learning.
- Utilize time productively.
- Demonstrate flexibility with work assignments.
- Communicate regularly with all disciplines involved in the care of the patient.
- Demonstrate flexibility in staffing and adaptability to changes in patient care practice.
- Exercise safe judgement in decision making.
- Demonstrate tact and understanding when dealing with others. Respond in a positive manner to constructive criticism.

WHAT WE'RE LOOKING FOR

1-3 Years Experience

License(s): Registered Nurse

Certification(s):

Travel: Up to 75%
