

Mutual of America's Community Partnership Award

The Mutual of America Community Partnership Award recognizes outstanding nonprofit organizations in the United States that have shown exemplary leadership by facilitating partnerships with public, private or social sector leaders who are working together as equal partners, not as donors and recipients, to build a cohesive community that serves as a model for collaborating with others for the greater good.

Each year, five organizations are selected by an independent committee to receive the Community Partnership Award. One receives the Thomas J. Moran Award, which is given to the national award-winning program and includes $100,000 and a documentary video about the program. The remaining four are named honorable mention recipients, and each receives $50,000.

Below are a few other links related to the award:

- 2022 Community Partnership Award Application
- Videos: Past National Award-Winning Programs

The brief agenda for the seminar is:

- An introduction to Mutual of America and why we started to Community Partnership Award.
- Details about the Award, who is eligible, and what the selection committee is looking for.
- The application process.
- Questions and answers

Click here to register for the online discussion of the Award.