Job Location

The Director, Hospice position is located in Indianapolis, IN.

Job Duties

The Director, Hospice is responsible for all aspects of the clinical components of hospice services to provide quality, efficient, and cost-effective patient care. This leader ensures that all applicable state and federal regulations, accreditation standards, agency policies and procedures are adhered to by each individual. The Director supervises a team of clinical managers, hospice clinical services assistant, bereavement coordinator, and volunteer manager.

Experience

- Three (3) years of leadership experience at Manager level or higher.
- Two (2) years of hospice experience in the past five (5) years.

Education

- Bachelor degree in business or health-related field.
- Master degree in business, health administration, or health-related field required within three (3) years of start date.

License

Current licensure as applicable.

Skills

- Demonstrated leadership skills to include multi-disciplinary team leadership, business development, program development, budgetary authority
- Demonstrated ability to grow and develop services
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Ability to identify, develop and maintain key stakeholder relationships

Keywords

Hospice

Additional Information

Community Health Network embraces a servant leadership philosophy by putting the needs of patients, employees, and the community above our own. We strongly believe to provide exceptional healthcare services we need exceptional leaders. A Community leader humbly puts the needs of others first and provides focus and direction to those they have the privilege of leading. They demonstrate compassion in all interactions and are deeply invested in the growth and development of others.